

Final call for papers

VISUAL LEARNING

Conference to take place in Budapest, December 1, 2010

Conference organized by the Visual Learning Lab, Budapest

<http://www.vll.mpt.bme.hu>

at the Department of Technical Education in the Budapest University of Technology and Economics.

Speakers will include:

Zsuzsanna Kemenesi

www.infranesia.com

Zoltan Kovecses

<http://das.elte.hu/content/faculty/kovecses/publications.html>

John Mullarkey

<http://dundee.academia.edu/JohnMullarkey>

Roger Murphy

www.nottingham.ac.uk/visuallearninglab/visuallearninglab.aspx

Christoph Wagner

<http://www-cgi.uni-regensburg.de/Kunstgeschichte/index.php?prof1>

Contributions are invited from education theorists, philosophers, linguists, sociologists, psychologists, media theorists, and other interested scholars on the following and related topics:

- the visual mind
- scientific visualization
- visualization and higher education
- image and metaphor
- images in the network age
- pictorial skills
- how film teaches
- visual rhetoric
- visual thinking and neurodiversity
- visual theology

Continued on next page!

Continued from previous page!

A slot of altogether 20 minutes is planned for each presentation. We envisage an ensuing volume of selected papers.

Submission of abstracts (max. 200 words) and short biographical statements (max. 100 words) by Oct. 1, 2010. Please send your submissions to Kristof Nyiri <knyiri@t-email.hu>. Those submitting abstracts will be notified of the decision concerning acceptance on Oct. 10, 2010.

No conference fees will be charged. Participants are encouraged to arrange their own accommodation. The conference venue (Budapest University of Technology and Economics, 1117 Budapest, Magyar Tudosok korutja 2, Bld. Q, Wing A) is located near downtown Budapest.